

What's new with Mover2Mover

Mover2Mover now has even more options to give you access to our global moving marketplace in one simple, easy-to-use platform.

PricePoint has been working on several exciting updates for Mover2Mover, our subscription-based product where you can access thousands of rates from agents all over the world in real-time. Besides being able to instantly quote and benchmark your partner's or your own rates, we have added some new features and subscription options that will make Mover2Mover even better for you.

	Previous	Today
Calculator	Accessing agent's rates reserved for M2M Subscribers with a single subscription tier option.	Everyone can access agent's public rates via Calculator for free.
TariffEngine	Users had to enter their rates to the TariffEngine by themselves with the help of our user guides.	Users have the option to save time entering rates into TariffEngine by purchasing Tariff Installation service.
Supplementals	Agents had to provide supplemental charges separately. Subscribers had to add supplementals manually to saved quotes.	Agents will soon be able to enter supplemental rates along with their OA/DA service rates. Calculator users can consult and calculate Supplementals when quoting.
Booking Moves	Mover2Mover provided an agent's contact details to facilitate email communication for initiations. Moves could not be booked through Mover2Mover.	Calculator users can save and book shipments within Mover2Mover. Booked shipments will send an email with the quote details to the selected agent.
Private Channels	Called Audiences before, unlimited to all users.	Everyone can use All, Geographic and Restricted audiences. Private Channels (previously Customized Audiences) are only available to subscribers.
Analysis	Reserved for Subscribers with only one subscription tier option.	Reserved for Subscribers, but with four pricing options to better fit their needs.
EZ-RFP	Reserved for Subscribers with only one subscription tier option.	Reserved for Subscribers, but with four pricing options to better fit their needs.
Reporting	No reporting available.	Receive a range of reports from basic (booked moves & distribution) to premium (geographic coverage & regional hot lanes) depending on subscription level
